

I would really appreciate it if you would not interrupt the NO call list. I have not received but, maybe one telemarketing call per month. I used to receive at least 15-20 per week. That cut into my family time with my children. Now I have more time to help them with homework without being bothered. Please don't stop the list.